

Black Skeptics Los Angeles

A 501(c)(3) Nonprofit Organization

First in the Family Humanist Scholarship 2016

Deadline: June 10, 2016

Four $1,000 scholarships will be awarded to graduating LAUSD seniors who will be the first in their immediate families to go to college.

Application is also available online at www.blackskepticsla.org

Scholarships will be awarded in August 2016

June 2016 Eligibility Requirements:

- I. Preference will be given to students who are (or have been) in foster care, homeless, undocumented and/or LGBTQ (system-involved youth applicants also encouraged to apply).
- I. Applicants must have a record of service to and participation in school and/or community-based organizations. (Please include a list if these activities are not mentioned in your advisor/teacher letter.)
- II. Applicants must provide a letter of recommendation from an advisor/teacher and complete the two-paragraph essay below.
- III. Applicants must provide an admission letter to a 2 or 4 year college.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone/email: _____

High School: _____

Advisor/Teacher name & phone

Race/Ethnicity _____

Are you the first in your family to attend college? Yes _____ No _____

Please submit a two-paragraph essay (between 400-700 words) on the following:

Humanism is based on the belief that every human being should be treated equally regardless of race, gender, sexual orientation, class, and disability status. Human beings, not gods, are solely responsible for creating social change. What issue(s) are you passionate about addressing in your community and how might Humanism make a positive difference in creating social change?

Please submit your application and essay via email, mail or fax to:

Black Skeptics Los Angeles

Attn: Sikivu Hutchinson

3101 W. 79th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90043

blackskeptics@gmail.com, Fax: 323-482-1595